Annually this fee includes:

* 35 lessons (private and group) from early Sept. to end of May (includes Holiday Caroling Party). All private lessons include 40 minutes of private instruction and 20 minutes of computer lab time.

(See Piano Lessons link)

Private lessons include occasional group lessons which include 45-60 minutes of classroom instruction and musical activity.

* A music education curriculum designed for your child's talents and interests.

* Preparation for optional piano performances outside of the Studio - WMTA District Auditions, WSMA Solo/Ensemble, MMTA Festival, Piano Guild and others. Registration fees and additional rehearsals are extra.

* Spring Studio Recital

Materials Fees

$40.00 per student per year due the first lesson of the year

Annually this fee includes:

* Lesson assignment notebook

* CDs for recording special completed pieces

* $5 toward the Sight-Reading Music Lending Library

* Music books student will be assigned

If books purchased are more than $40, you will be billed for that amount at end of year.

If books purchased are less than $40, difference will be refunded at end of year.

Fee Payment

Monthly fees are due at first lesson of each month.

Semester payments are due first lesson of each semester.

Annual payments are due first lesson of year.

Materials fee is due with first monthly or semester payment or with annual payment.

Equipment

Easy access to a tuned piano or digital keyboard for consistent, frequent practice sessions.

An operable, functioning metronome - may be purchased from the studio or a local music store.

Logistics

Arrive at the earliest time listed on your schedule.

Time highlighted in blue is student's computer time / white is lesson time.

Be courteous to my neighbors as you drive slowly up our commonly owned drive and be respectful of all personal property.

Cancellations

Arrangements will be made to make up lessons that have been cancelled for excused absences.

Excused absences are illness, a death in the family or bad weather.

If a lesson is missed due to any other scheduling conflict, I will not make up those lessons or return the fee.

During bad weather, call ahead - I will leave message on answering machine indicating the state of the roads near the studio. Leave a message as to your decision. A piano lesson is not worth losing a life or damaging a car. I will do all I can to make up that lesson or give a refund if it is appropriate.
